a nice contrast to other games..a mixture of physics, puzzle and inventive level designs. Along with Xortex, this is the best bullet hell shooter I've played in VR. I was a bit put off by the team but it isn't that prominent while you're playing (you mostly see lasers, not animals).

- + Good tutorial
- + Saw only one small bug
- + Cheap

- Too easy: First time playing I got to 45 mins on easy before suiciding. Second time playing I unlocked all the upgrades on hard and only came close to dying once. I still haven't died. It took more than an hour.

- Your score is only updated to leaderboards when you die. Maybe this why there are less than 10 people there?

- Only one boss (a dog) that is lame and much easier than the normal waves and immune to damage most of the time.. Current WR holder for any% here. Intrusion Protocol is a wonderful sit-down platformer experience with exquisite controls. Every death I've had, whether it was during my blind playthrough or in my record run, felt like it was my fault - a trolltastic feeling that most platformers in this same vein get wrong. The game's on the short side, but it was absolutely built with speedrunning in mind, and I plan the time as far down as I can.. the game is broken i tried and tried everything i should to play it on my alienware 17 and nothing works it crashes on start up i hope its fixed soon then -- atm i can't recommend this game because i can't even play it!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! ZUN needs more beer. I kinda wish there were more games like this.. This indie game has excellent gameplay, however does not have much story. You will constantly die trying to get through the dungeons and thats fine because thats suppose to happen. But if you want a quick game or quick multiplayer game where you can just dive in and try to complete the stages then this is the game for you.

Pretty standard tower defense game, well worth the price I bought it for (on sale around $2.75). The kind of game I expect to get about 3-5 hours of enjoyment out of, and then I'll move on.. This is actually a very tough game to play. The controls are very simple and by level 11 you already know the full game, its just a case of completing the difficult levels. If you dont like rage games, dont play this. Music is very good also!

I'd give it a 8/10. God bless you~ What a great game I've ever played The Class 33 has been around for a while now on TS (Since August 2012) even though its showing its age its still a great addition to your TS roster.

PROS:

- EWS, NSE, BR blue, BR green, Mainline grey, Dutch Grey liveries all fantastically produced.
- Adequate sounds.
- Wagon rake included.

CONS:

- Sounds are now a little dated.

Given that its a old model in account I give it 7/10 (mainly for the liveries included)

. The best way I can describe this game is boring. VERY boring. However it is the most fun form of boring there is.

It is relaxing to cultivate like a farmer or just sit and collect eggs from chickens, or forget the farm and become a lumberjack. This game is great when played with friends as well.

The game encourages you to add mods, and the mods are really easy to install. You literally just download a zip file and throw it in the mods folder, without the need to extract or anything.

PS buy the sprayer it looks like your tractor has wings its hilarious :3
